

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
EASTERN DISTRICT OF WISCONSIN

ANDREW AARON, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

v.

Case No. 20-CV-1660

DOMINICK RATKOWSKI and JOSEPH ROY,

Defendants.

ORDER REDACTING TRANSCRIPT OF VOIR DIRE

Plaintiffs have requested a copy of the trial transcript in the above-captioned case, including a transcript of the voir dire process. Pursuant to In re: Transcripts of Voir Dire, General Order No. 22-9 (E.D. Wis. June 15, 2022), if a requested transcript includes a transcription of the voir dire process, at the time the transcript is made available in the clerk's office, the court reporter must notify the presiding judge that a transcript of the voir dire process has been made available for review. The presiding judge must balance the right to public access of the transcript with the jurors' right to privacy and seal the transcript of the voir dire process if appropriate.

In this case, the transcript of the voir dire proceedings contains both the first and last names of several members of the venire. To protect these individual's privacy, the first and last names of the venire members will be redacted in the transcript of the voir dire process.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dated at Milwaukee, Wisconsin this 5th day of June, 2023.

BY THE COURT:

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Nancy Joseph". The signature is written in a cursive style with a horizontal line extending from the end of the name.

NANCY JOSEPH
United States Magistrate Judge
